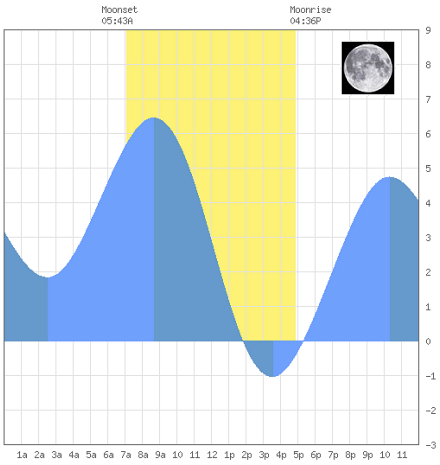
ALAMEDA PHOTOGRAPHIC SOCIETY
FIELD TRIP SERIES

Saturday, December 2, 2017 11 am to 7 pm

Sunset at Pescadero State Beach

APS member Marcy Zimmerman will lead this trip and take advantage of the super low tide in the late afternoon to explore the tide pools and the beautiful beach scenery. Also on the other side of the highway are the Pescadero Marsh and Natural Preserve complete with trails. This presents an opportunity for those wanting to photograph wildlife (mostly birds). As twilight descends upon us, we will then photograph both the sunset and full moonrise (weather permitting).

Low tide: 3:15 pm (-1.3')
Sunset: 4:52 pm
Moonrise: 4:36



Plan to leave Alameda around 11:00 am to get to the beach by 1 pm. Contact Marcy if you would like to carpool or are willing to drive others.

In addition to your camera/lenses/memory cards bring a tripod, drinking water, portable chair, flash light, extra dry socks and a towel and dress in layers and bring an extra jacket. If you are going onto or near the rocks/tide pools you may want to consider rubberized or vulcanized shoes/boots and change into comfortable shoes afterwards.

Optional: Dinner at Duarte's Tavern in Pescadero.

RSVP on the Meetup site or directly with the meeting organizer at mzimmerman@sonomaconnections.com.
