~delicious food, yoga, Italian charm, unforgettable moments~

May 8 - 17, 2018

Please join us for my fun and unique Photography Workshop in Umbria, Italy, May 8-17, 2018, full of joyful and inspiring experiences, great food and yoga. We have become very close to the local people, who have become good friends over the years.

This workshop will be what it is like to be on assignment for my favorite travel magazine clients, such as National Geographic Traveler. I want to share that with you. Space is limited, as we are a small group.

Experiences include:

- photographing the local Cinquecento Club: the owners and their vintage cars, in a lovely hill village
- going out with fishermen to shoot their ancient way of fishing on Lake Bolsena
- staying at the charming La Locanda della Quercia Calante
- practicing all-levels yoga in a peaceful space with views of the countryside
- joining in a vibrant festival in the lakeside town of Marta
- spending time with shepherds at their mountain farm
- tasting Orvieto wines at a palazzo with stunning views
- delicious and healthy food for every meal
- daily class time with critiques and teaching on location

"Words cannot express how much I learned from this extremely successful Umbria photography workshop. Your ability to teach in a way that is as creative as your photography makes you one of the best teachers I've ever had in any discipline. This workshop exceeded my expectations in a multitude of ways." Darlene Lewis-Chinn, participant
