VIETNAM & CAMBODIA PHOTO WORKSHOP

Hanoi and the Central Coast, Hué, Hoi An, and Siem Reap

October 16 - 31, 2018

This is a rare opportunity to experience my Vietnam, a country I have been traveling to and photographing in for 28 years, a place that I know well and love very much. I recently discovered a new Cambodia, and I am excited to share some hidden gems that I found.

Experiences will include:

- discovering the charming streets of Hanoi's ancient Old Quarter, and around the lakes
- visiting carefully selected pottery studios in Bat Trang ceramics village
- in the ancient capital of Hué: photographing at a beautiful pagoda and the historic Citadel, bicycling and photographing in small villages with Anthony Bourdain's guide, enjoying a delicious lunch at a local home
- in picturesque Hoi An: capturing the life of a floating fish market, local artisans, charming architecture and lively street scenes. Dinner at White Sail restaurant for excellent seafood, and sampling the best banh mi sandwiches.
- staying in great hotels such as the magnificent art deco La Résidence in Hué
- learning about modern art with gallerist Suzanne Lecht, at a private dinner in her art-filled home in Hanoi
- shooting the ancient temples of Angkor, practicing ways to make your temple photographs look original
- photographing a special off-the-beaten-track silk farm, which is a real gem
- spending quality time with landmine survivors and their families on our Philanthropy Day

"This was the best photo workshop I've ever attended, and far exceeded my expectations. Top notch food, accommodations, cultural exchanges with interesting people Catherine's known for years, workshop instruction in class and at the sites all made for outstanding learning experiences. The critiques will make you a better photographer no matter what level you are at. This workshop fulfilled all the good things I wanted in a high quality workshop, then went over the top with more yet! This experience was one that I will remember forever." - workshop guest
